Hunter's Moon Live at the Rockmore!

This 1997 CD started life as a limited-edition "bootleg" CDR from a live recording commissioned by the artists. Cover materials were originally printed on our inkjet printer. The CD was later released commercially, with full 4-color process printing.

The design, which features gorgeous outdoor photos by Charles Brewer, was intended to convert easily to full-color process printing later on.

Acknowledgments-

Pickering Wharf in Salem, Mass "bustles" - that's the word alright, throughout the summer and fall. When Hunter's Moon walked in to play at the Rockmore Drydock for the first time in mid-December, 1996 the pace was much slower. Still, the band was hired and were asked to play often. The people that run the place, and the people that work there were all really nice, and Hunter's Moon stayed on. Now it's summer, and everyone that worked through the winter is working harder now, to make the Rockmore Drydock a place where the diners and listeners are always welcome. We put together this "Live" recording as our way of saying, "Thank and keep on coming in! Hope to see you there."

A SPECIAL THANKS to: The RockMore Corporation; The Rockmore Drydock and friends that we've made there: Peter N., Jen, Julie, Dirk, Kim, Steve, Jonathan, Reed, Jackie, Amanda, John Mc., Joe, Brandon(B.J.), Adam, Brant, Heidi, Santi, Rich, Ronnie, Tara, Kerry, Dawn, Ellen, Roberto, Jostin, Melissa, Lisa M., Michael, John H., Crissy, Linda, Elaine, Lisa S., May and anyone that we may have missed and have supported us from the beginning.

Hunter's Moon-

Erinn Brown: Thanx to John for making this possible and Dan for accepting me from the beginning. Thanx to both of them for their humor and great musicianship. Thanx to my family, of course, for their wonderful support and driving long distances just to check me out: Mom, Pat, Dad, Bern, Kell + Lowell, Shan, Gram, Pup, and you too, Gina! Thanx to Matt, Fred, Masashi, Alison + Pete, Patty + Dave, Catherine, Bill + Danny, (why do I feel like I'm missing somebody?), AND Roo Kanga Donnybrook who has no idea!!!
- Love u guys, Er

Dan Drayer: Whenever musicians enter a new venue there are factors that always present themselves in the most basic sense: Where do we set up? Where is the plug? Are there stools? In the end the most important aspect is the reverberation of the room itself. I have discovered a wonderful fact in playing at the Rockmore. The most enjoyable thing has been the reverberation of the people that actually work here. My Thanks for the experience of your support. You've all been great and I'm glad to have you be a part of this. My special thanks to John Donelan and Erinn Brown whose performances made doing this album a pure joy! Best, of course, to everyone!
- Dan Drayer

John Donelan: Mom - I'm saying "Hi" from me, the family and Dan and Erinn. I never thought when we played for you last fall it would be the last time. But here we are. There are some mistakes, but you would have really liked this one, and every week I get to listen to Erinn sing, and I hope some other people do now. Love you, John. "There are too many people to say 'Thanks' to here, especially this year - so this kind of a general 'Hi, hope to see you soon!'"
- John D.
